MAIN STAGE 13:30 Tools that stay: What really works in procurement digitisation?

 PANEL DISCUSSION

In the digital era, procurement has increasingly taken on the role of a strategic partner - supported by innovative technologies. But which digital tools are really effective and which are just 'hype'? In this panel, experts will discuss which technologies and solutions in procurement are successful in the long term and bring real added value. From e-procurement systems and AI-based solutions to digital marketplaces - which tools help to optimise processes and increase efficiency? Participants will gain practical insights into which technologies are revolutionising procurement and how to implement digital transformation sustainably.
